Product Description

Geely Bo Yue's front bumper on the body

As a high-profile car, the design and manufacture of the body on its front bumper condenses exquisite craftsmanship, advanced technology and strict control of quality.

Process:

The body of Geely Boyue front bumper adopts a high-precision mold stamping process to ensure the accurate size and regular shape of each component. In the welding process, advanced laser welding technology is used to make the weld even and firm, which not only improves the overall strength, but also shows the exquisite appearance. At the same time, the surface treatment process is more refined. After multiple painting and polishing processes, the bumper has excellent corrosion resistance and gloss.

Technology:

In terms of technological innovation, the ontology of Geely Bo Yueqian bumper integrates intelligent design concepts. New materials and structures are used to effectively reduce weight and improve fuel economy. In addition, the bumper also has a certain pedestrian protection function. Through a special cushioning structure and energy-absorbing design, the damage to pedestrians can be minimized during collision.

Quality:

Quality is one of the core advantages of Geely's front bumper. From the selection of raw materials, international standards are strictly followed, and high-strength and tough plastics and steel are selected to ensure the reliability of bumpers in various complex road conditions. In the production process, each process has undergone strict quality testing, from the dimensional accuracy of the parts to the overall performance test, all of them strive for excellence to ensure that every factory bumper meets the high-quality standards.

Workmanship:

The meticulous workmanship is a highlight of Geely's front bumper. Every detail has been carefully carved. Whether it is the chamfering of the edge or the accuracy of the installation hole, it shows Geely's persistent pursuit of quality. The bumper has a very high fit with the body, and the gap is even and flat, which not only improves the beauty of the whole vehicle, but also reduces the wind resistance and improves the driving stability.

Advantages:

1. Excellent protection performance: It can effectively resist collisions and scratches from the front, providing reliable security for vehicles and passengers.
2. Good aerodynamic design: optimize the airflow distribution of the vehicle and reduce wind noise and fuel consumption.
3. Fashionable appearance: It complements the overall style of the car body and improves the appearance and recognition of the vehicle.
4. Easy to repair and replace: With a modular design, it can be repaired or replaced quickly and conveniently in the event of damage, reducing the cost of use.

Function:

1. Safety protection: As the first line of defense in the front of the vehicle, it absorbs and disperses energy in the event of a collision to reduce damage to the body and passengers.
2. Beautiful decoration: It adds fashionable and dynamic elements to the vehicle and improves the appearance quality of the vehicle.
3. Reduce wind resistance: improve the aerodynamic performance of the vehicle, improve driving efficiency and stability.
4. Auxiliary functions: Fog lights, radar and other equipment are installed to provide better lighting and auxiliary functions for driving.

In a word, the body of Geely Boyue front bumper, with its exquisite technology, advanced technology, excellent quality, fine workmanship, and significant advantages and roles, has become a highlight of Geely Boyue models, bringing a safer, more comfortable and beautiful driving experience to car owners.
